ARTICLE VII

Referendum Procedures

Sec. 1-7-10. Referendum power.

The registered electors of the Town shall have the power at their option to approve or reject, by election, any ordinance adopted by the Town Board which is subject to referendum pursuant to the Colorado Constitution, the Charter and applicable state law. (Ord. 2007-1287 §1)

Sec. 1-7-20. Commencement of proceedings.

(a) One (1) or more registered electors may commence referendum proceedings by filing with the Town Clerk a mandatory notice of protest of the subject ordinance within ten (10) days after the final publication of said ordinance. The notice of protest must be in writing and must fully identify the ordinance proposed to be the subject of the referendum. The notice of protest may be brief, but shall clearly state the intention of the elector or electors to commence the referendum process. The filing of the notice of protest shall be a condition precedent to the filing of a referendum petition, and the failure to do so shall preclude the later filing of any such petition. In the event a notice of protest is filed during the ten-day period, the operation of the subject ordinance shall be suspended until such time as the registered elector or electors giving such notice have failed to comply with the referendum requirements hereinafter set forth.

(b) Not later than ten (10) days after the filing of the notice of protest, the proponents thereof shall present to the Town Clerk the final form of a referendum petition relating to the ordinance identified in the notice of protest, and said petition shall conform with the requirements of the Home Rule Charter, the Colorado Constitution and state statutes.

(c) In the event the conforming notice of protest and the conforming referendum petition form are timely presented, the Town Clerk shall evaluate and determine the adequacy of the form of the petition in accordance with the referendum provisions of the Home Rule Charter, the Colorado Constitution and state statutes. Upon approval of the form of the petition by the Town Clerk, the petition shall then be available for circulation and thereafter signed, verified and filed in accordance with the Home Rule Charter, Colorado Constitution and state statutes as aforesaid. (Ord. 2007-1287 §2)

Sec. 1-7-30. Signatures required.

A referendum petition shall be signed by registered electors of the Town equal in number to at least five percent (5%) of the total number of electors of the Town registered to vote at the last regular municipal election. (Ord. 2007-1287 §4)

Sec. 1-7-40. Petition deadline.

A completed referendum petition with all required information attached thereto shall be filed with the Town Clerk no later than thirty (30) days after the Town Clerk's approval of the petition for circulation. Upon receipt of a completed referendum petition, the Town Clerk shall evaluate the petition for certification in accordance with the provisions of the Home Rule Charter, Colorado Constitution and the state statutes. If a completed referendum petition is not filed within this thirty-day period, the referendum effort shall be deemed null and void, the petition shall not be further circulated and the subject ordinance shall become effective. (Ord. 2007-1287 §5)

Sec. 1-7-50. Town Board action.

The presentation to the Town Clerk of a timely notice of protest as aforesaid, the timely filing of a referendum petition and thereafter the certification by the Town Clerk to the Town Board of a petition sufficient for referendum shall further suspend the operation of the ordinance in question pending repeal by the Town Board or final determination by the registered electors. The Town Board shall reconsider the ordinance at the next regular or special meeting of the Town Board following the receipt and verification of the petition by the Town Clerk. If the ordinance, or that part sought to be repealed, is not repealed, the Town Board shall refer the same to a vote of the registered electors in accordance with the referendum powers as set forth in the Home Rule Charter, the Colorado Constitution and state statutes. (Ord. 2007-1287 §6)
